Social Misconduct
Flowchart

Social complaints involving students/student organization(s) are referred to SCAIP by any individual or group

SCAIP determines action is warranted

Complaint reviewed by SCAIP. SCAIP may contact complaining party for incident details

SCAIP sends a Notice to Appear for Administrative Review to student(s)/student organization(s) which details:

1. Summary of the incident
2. List the alleged violation of University policy/ies
3. Date by which they are required to schedule an Administrative Review
4. Where to find information on the University policies and procedures

Student(s)/student organization(s) leader(s) schedule and meet with SCAIP in Administrative Review of the incident to discuss and respond to the alleged violation of policy

SCAIP may contact and follow up with others for clarification and more details about the incident.

SCAIP finding of NOT RESPONSIBLE: Written notification of decision sent

SCAIP] finding of RESPONSIBLE for violation of University Policy: Written notification sent to all parties of decision, educational sanction, and opportunity to appeal decision to the Dean of Students

SCC finding of RESPONSIBLE for violation of University policies and written notification to all parties of decision, educational sanctions, and opportunity to appeal decision to the Dean of Students

Student(s)/student organization(s) may submit a written appeal to the Dean of Students within 10 business days of receipt of decision. If appeal is accepted, original decision and sanction may be upheld, modified, or rejected. Case may be referred back to SCC for further review. Written notification of decision shall be sent to all parties.

SCC finding of NOT RESPONSIBLE and written notification sent all parties of no further action

SCAIP determines action is not warranted. No action is taken

If conduct of student(s)/student organization(s) is determined to be threatening or disruptive to the University community, the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs may impose an Interim Suspension.

Student(s)/student organization(s) leader(s) schedule and meet with SCAIP in Administrative Review of the incident to discuss and respond to the alleged violation of policy

SCAIP may contact and follow up with others for clarification and more details about the incident.

SCAIP finding of NOT RESPONSIBLE: Written notification of decision sent

Note: Under certain circumstances, a case may be forwarded directly to the Student Conduct Committee for review w/o an Administrative Review.

If the incident involves serious or repetitive behavioral violation(s) that may potentially result in suspension or dismissal, SCAIP refers case to the Student Conduct Committee (SCC) and sends written notification to the student organization of referral, advises of right to a Pre-Committee Review Conference, and, if feasible, schedules a formal Review date and location.

Student(s)/student organization(s) may request a pre-Committee Review Conference to review alleged violations and preview the SCC Hearing process and procedures

SCC finding of NOT RESPONSIBLE and written notification sent all parties of no further action