

FERPA Release for Advisor

The University of California maintains the privacy of student education records and allows students the right to inspect their records consistent with the requirements of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Acts (FERPA). In order for Student Conduct & Academic Integrity Programs (SCAIP) to disclose information from student records, the student must sign a written release authorizing the disclosure. For more information and defined terms, please review the UC Riverside Policies Applying to the Disclosure of Information from Student Records.

I hereby acknowledge the above and give permission for SCAIP to disclose information related to a report, complaint, accommodation request, investigation or other resolution process in which I am involved. The purpose of this disclosure is to enable these individuals to provide support or advice.

Person to whom information and records may be disclosed and released:
